

Results of steady-state tailpipe emissions tests of hydrocarbon (HC) emissions "before" and "after" installing the TADGER on 8 vehicles

All tests were conducted at licenced inspection stations in Canada on accurately calibrated electronic "four-gas" tailpipe emissions analyzers by properly trained technicians. "After" tests were conducted immediately following the installation of the TADGER with no driving between "before" and "after" tests.